

MILITARY, VETERAN & FIRST RESPONDER APPRECIATION DAY

FREE admission Thursday, July 21, 2022

We invite active duty, reserve and veteran personnel from all branches of the military as well as first responders and lifeguards to enjoy FREE Fair admission. This year, active duty spouses and dependents are also included in FREE admission on this special day.

The whole day is focused on paying gratitude and celebrating the individuals and organizations that keep our country safe.

The day will include:

- 11:30 am Opening Ceremony
- Fallen Soldier Salute and War Horse Heroes presentation
- Flag ceremony, National Anthem Ride, and Red, White & Blue military tribute
- K9 Police Dogs demonstration
- Special performances on our Community Stages
- SaveMart California's Kitchen Dinner 911! Cooking Challenge
- Fire safety education and information for all
- Dozens of community booths specializing in public safety, health, career options as well as resources for military personal and veterans
- All the amusement, inspiration and education the Fair has to offer!

WE APPRECIATE YOUR SERVICE

Thank you and see you at the CA State Fair & Food Festival!

<https://calexpostatefair.com/fair/appreciation-day/>

For FREE Fair admission, veteran or military personnel must present valid military ID or proof of service at the California State Fair's Box Office. Active first responders and lifeguards must present ID showing first responder or lifeguard status.