Award-Winning Artists to Headline 2023 California State Fair

Fitz and The Tantrums, Scotty McCreery, and Gin Blossoms announced as part of Toyota Concert Series

SACRAMENTO — The CA State Fair & Food Festival is excited to announce the three musicians who headline this year's Toyota Concert Series -- indie pop group Fitz and The Tantrums, country music star Scotty McCreery, and rock band Gin Blossoms.

Los Angeles based band Fitz and The Tantrums, with smash hits "Out of My League" and "HandClap", will headline on opening night, July 14. Scotty McCreery, known for hits such as "Five More Minutes" and "Damn Strait," will take the stage on Thursday, July 20. Gin Blossoms, famous for their '90s hit "Hey Jealousy" and other beloved songs like "Follow You Down" and "Found Out About You," will perform on Friday, July 28.

The 2023 CA State Fair & Food Festival will take place from July 14 to July 30, at the Cal Expo fairgrounds in Sacramento. The State Fair offers the concerts free as part of the fair admission, giving all attendees the opportunity to enjoy these exciting performances. For those who would like to guarantee a seat for the show, reserved seats are available for purchase separately. In addition to the concert series, the fair features a variety of attractions, exhibits, and activities for all ages.

"We are thrilled to bring such talented and popular musicians to the California State Fair for our concert series," said Tom Martinez, CEO of the California State Fair. "With the highest concert budget, we've ever had, we're committed to providing our fairgoers with an unforgettable entertainment experience. We are excited to announce several other top performing artists in the coming weeks."
