Grammy Award-Winning Ashanti to Join California State Fair Concert Lineup

Previously announced acts Fitz and The Tantrums, Ginuwine, LeAnn Rimes, Scotty McCreery, 38 Special, Gin Blossoms, and more.

SACRAMENTO — Today, the CA State Fair & Food Festival announced three more highly anticipated performers for the Toyota Concert Series this summer, including Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter Ashanti, Queen tribute band Queen Nation, and Carlos Santana tribute band SantanaWays.

The latest additions will join Fitz and The Tantrums, Ginuwine, LeAnn Rimes, Scotty McCreery, 38 Special, and Gin Blossoms, with even more acts to be announced in the weeks ahead.

Ashanti will perform her hits such as "Foolish" and "Rock Wit U (Awww Baby)" on Wednesday, July 26. Queen Nation, a band that has been faithfully recreating the music of British rock band Queen since 2004, will perform on Monday, July 17. SantanaWays, a tribute to Carlos Santana's signature guitar and jazz sound, will entertain the audience on Monday, July 24.

The 2023 CA State Fair & Food Festival promises to be a thrilling extravaganza, running from July 14 to July 30 at the Cal Expo fairgrounds in Sacramento. As part of its commitment to providing outstanding entertainment for all, the State Fair includes concert admission in the fair entry price. To ensure a prime viewing experience, reserved seating is also available for purchase. Beyond the electrifying concert series, fairgoers can expect diverse attractions, exhibits, and activities catering to all ages and interests.

"Each week we are signing more and more great acts for this year's California State Fair," said Tom Martinez, CEO of Cal Expo "With our largest concert budget to date, we're dedicated to delivering an unparalleled entertainment experience for our attendees. Stay tuned as we unveil even more top-performing artists in the coming weeks."
