The California State Fair Announces Iconic Concert Lineup Featuring Queen Nation and 90's Rewind with Tone Loc, C&C Music Factory, & Digital Underground

Previously announced acts included Flo Rida, Chris Young, Bush, the Beach Boys, Cole Swindell, UB41 featuring Ali Campbell, and Lukas Nelson

SACRAMENTO — The California State Fair is thrilled to announce a remarkable lineup for this year's Toyota Concert Series on the Golden 1 Stage. Music lovers are in for a treat with performances from the #1 Queen Tribute in the United States, Queen Nation, and a powerhouse 90's Rewind show featuring legends Tone Loc, C&C Music Factory, and Digital Underground.

Queen Nation will take the stage on Monday, July 15th at 8 PM, promising an electrifying tribute to the timeless music of Queen. Known for their authentic representation and dynamic live performances, Queen Nation offers a perfect blend of nostalgia and rock fervor, echoing the essence of the legendary Freddie Mercury and the iconic band.

The excitement continues as we turn back the clock with the 90's Rewind concert on Friday, July 19th at 8 PM. This special night features performances by hip-hop and dance music legends Tone Loc, C&C Music Factory, and Digital Underground. Relive the decade that brought some of the most influential hits of hip-hop and dance music history.

Pre-sale tickets will be available starting Monday, April 29th, with general ticket sales beginning on Tuesday, April 30th.

"We are incredibly excited to bring such legendary talent to the Golden 1 Stage this year," said Tom Martinez, CEO of California State Fair & Cal Expo. "Queen Nation and the 90's Rewind show are not only a celebration of great music but also a tribute to the enduring legacy of these phenomenal artists. We invite everyone to join us for these unforgettable nights of music and memory."
